NOBLE CALEDONIA

Northern Norway is one of the best places in the world to see the Northern Lights, or aurora borealis, and the counties of Troms and Finnmark that we will be visiting are where they appear with the greatest frequency. There are few phenomena that capture the imagination like the aurora borealis and at this time of year, when the sun never rises above the horizon, we can expect magnificent displays with the flashing lights forming beautifully coloured arcs in the sky.

There is much more included in our tour to occupy us and this region offers some of the world's most remarkable winter scenery. Enjoy three nights in Tromsø which, located just 400 kilometres north of the Arctic Circle is a lively city with a superb collection of polar culture and history. There are also plenty of adventurous activities on offer and we will enjoy a dog sled ride whilst taking in the spectacular mountain scenery. The enthusiasm of the Alaskan Husky dogs and their hunger to travel is insatiable and very infectious.

From Alta, 'City of the Northern Lights' and the base for our final nights, we will travel to the Lapland region to meet the indigenous Sami and learn of their history, traditions and remarkable subsistence lifestyle. Also visit the Igloo Hotel which is carved entirely out of ice and rebuilt every year in time for winter – for a truly memorable wilderness experience you may wish to join our optional overnight stay here.

THE ITINERARY

Day 1 London to Tromsø, Norway. Fly by scheduled flight. Arrive this evening and transfer to Clarion Hotel The Edge for a three night stay. Dinner will be in the hotel restaurant this evening.

Day 2 Tromsø. After a leisurely breakfast we begin a tour of Tromsø, also known as the gateway to the Arctic. Situated on a forest-covered island linked to the mainland by a sweeping concrete bridge, the town is rich with Neo-classical architecture and contains the largest number of wooden houses in Northern Norway. During our panoramic tour we will see traces of 18th and 19th century architecture throughout the city and Lake Prestvatn. Visit Polaria, which is housed in a very distinctive building that represents ice floes that have been pressed up on land by rough seas of the Arctic. The museum focuses on the nature and wildlife of the Arctic. Continue to Tromsø Museum for a look at the interesting geological and ethnological exhibitions, learning about the indigenous Sami people and their way of life. Lunch will be at a local restaurant followed by an afternoon at leisure. This evening take a cable car to enjoy spectacular views of Tromsø and the surrounding islands and mountains. Following dinner in a local restaurant enjoy an evening concert inside Tromsø's iconic Arctic Cathedral. Built in 1965, the cathedral's distinctive iceberg-shaped design was inspired by the landscapes of Northern Norway and features a beautiful glass mosaic.

Day 3 Dog Sledding & Northern Lights Chase. After breakfast in the hotel travel out of the city to spend time with some 300 Alaskan Huskies, who are trained to pull sledges through the harshest polar conditions. Experience a dog sled ride with great views of the mountains surrounding Tromsø and afterwards warm up with lunch around an open fire. Following an afternoon at leisure at your centrally located hotel, meet this evening to go in search to see the amazing natural phenomena of the Aurora Borealis, or Northern Lights. Take in the quiet and beautiful scenery of our secluded location as we try to catch a glimpse of this incredible display of light, created by emissions of photons in the earth's upper atmosphere, which can look like they are dancing across the sky.

Day 4 Tromsø to Alta. After breakfast at the hotel we will depart by coach towards Alta, driving through the northern regions of Troms and Finnmark. The road stretches along the edge of this vast landscape offering a very scenic journey, which includes two scenic ferry crossings. Stop for lunch at a local restaurant before reaching Alta in the late afternoon, checking into Scandic Hotel Alta for a two night stay. Also known as the 'City of the Northern Lights', Alta stretches along the inner part of the Altafjord and on the banks of one of Norway's best rivers for salmon fishing, the Alta River. Lying well above the Arctic Circle, at 70 degrees north, its location provides a relatively mild climate where winter is snowy and white, with mostly clear weather. Dinner will be in the hotel this evening.

Day 5 Sami Culture & Igloo Hotel. Sapmi, or Lapland, stretches over the northernmost parts of Europe, covering Norway, Sweden, Finland and the Kola Peninsula. The indigenous inhabitants of this cultural region are known as Sami and they have survived for thousands of years, with a majority living in the Finnmark region of Northern Norway. The Sami culture is very traditional, and their isolated way of life is a distinctive characteristic of their nomadic and subsistence lifestyle. This morning we travel through Alta and Eiby valley before arriving in the village of Maze. As we arrive, our hosts will welcome us wearing kofte, the traditional costume, and we will be introduced to the history and culture of the Sami people. Meet some members of the reindeer herd which are owned by the Sami family, and we will be taken on a sledge ride through the pristine winter landscape. Afterwards gather around the open fire in a Lavvo (traditional Sami tent) and try Bidos, a tasty traditional stew, whilst learning about the traditions of this ancient culture. Return to Alta this afternoon for some time at leisure before we transfer to the Igloo Hotel. This remarkable structure is made entirely of ice and snow and rebuilt again every year in time for winter with ice sourced from the local valley. This impressive hotel has 20 to 30 rooms and individually decorated suites. Guests sleep on reindeer hide to keep warm in the icy temperatures, which usually average between minus four and minus seven degrees. The main entrance and ice bar are thoughtfully decorated with ice sculptures carved by local artists, and we will enjoy a drink served from a specially carved ice glass. Following our tour we will move next door to the main house to have a farewell dinner in the restaurant. Either return to the Scandic Hotel Alta or enjoy an optional overnight stay at the Igloo Hotel.

Day 6 Alta to London. Enjoy breakfast this morning before transferring to the airport for our return scheduled indirect flight to London.

Please note: Many of the excursions will involve walking over uneven ground covered in snow and ice and this tour is therefore not recommended for those with walking difficulties. Surface conditions are weather dependent.
